- Nadeaus
- Patches
- Poor Boys
- Puritan Backroom
- ReMix Roller Skating
- Rizzas
- Shaws
- Stubbys
- T-Bones
- Town Cabin
- Tuckers

Additionally, thank you to those who attended, organized, and helped at our Sisters in Crime New England Mystery Making Event! We hope you found it as fun and interesting as we did!

SAVE THE DATES

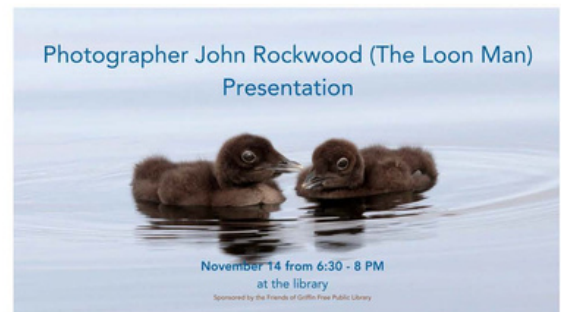

Tuesday, November 5: Friends of The Library at Election Day

Visit us outside the gym, where we'll be selling tote bags ($20) and handmade fabric ornaments ($3). Both items may also be purchased by emailing vicepresident@friendsofgriffinfree.org or secretary@friendsofgriffinfree.org, and tote bags are for sale at the library.

Thursday, November 14: Wiggles & Waggles with Photographer John Rockwood

6:30pm-8pm @ the Griffin Free Library

Since 2005, Auburn's very own John Rockwood has been delighting audiences with his spectacular collections of narrated and informative multimedia shows for the Common Loon and "Nature for All to See" shows, including a vast array of other fascinating wildlife. His work has been featured by NBC, BBC, NH Magazine, the Peabody Essex Museum, Appalachian Mountain Club, and more.

This event will feature a multimedia presentation about twin loons John filmed from the day they hatched until they migrated from Lake Massabesic. John's works will also be for sale.

Sunday, December 8: Santa Breakfast:

8am-11am @ AVS Cafeteria (Santa will arrive by fire truck by 8:45am)

Our largest fundraiser of the year! Join us for live holiday music from the AVS band, taking your own family photos with Santa, and a delicious breakfast including pancakes, scrambled eggs, sausage, home fries, pastries, yogurt, juice, coffee, tea, and hot chocolate.

Tickets: Adults $10, Children up to grade 8 $5, Children under age 3 are free.
